Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

EUCCHARISTIC TABLE

For in this life I feel that there are two things especially necessary for me, without which this miserable life would be unbearable. Imprisoned in the prison of this body, I confess to have need of two things: of food and of light. You have, therefore, given to me, weak as I am, your sacred body, and you have set 'Your word as a lantern for my feet' (Ps 118:105).

Without these two things I could not live well, for the Word of God is the light of my soul, and your Sacrament is the bread of life. These also may be called two tables situated on either side in the treasury of holy mother Church. One is the table of the holy Altar, which has the holy bread, that is, the precious body of Christ. The other is the table of the divine Law, which contains the holy doctrine which teaches the right faith, and certainly guides even to within the most intimate part of the veil, where the Holy of Holies is.

Thanks be to you, O Lord Jesus, splendour of the eternal light, for the table of sacred doctrine which you have prepared for us by the ministry of your servants, the prophets, the Apostles and the other Doctors.

From The Imitation of Christ by Thomas a Kempis
