Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

THE EUCHARIST IS ALIVE

"The Eucharist is alive. If a stranger who knew nothing about the Eucharist were to watch the way we receive, would he know this? When you and I approach the Eucharist, does it look like we believe we are about to take into our bodies the living person, Jesus Christ, true God and true man? How many times, Lord, have I forgotten that the Eucharist is alive! As I wait in line to receive you each day, am I thinking about how much you want to unite yourself with me? Am I seeing your hands filled with the graces you want to give me? Am I filled with awe and gratitude that you love me so much as to actually want to come to me in this incredibly intimate way? Or am I distracted, busy with other thoughts, preoccupied with myself and my agendas for the day? How many times, Jesus, have I made you sad, mindlessly receiving you into my body, into my heart, with no love and no recognition of your love? How many times have I treated you as a dead object? The Host that we receive is not a thing! It's not a wafer! It's not bread! It's a person – He's alive!"

— excerpt from 7 Secrets of the Eucharist

BILLIONAIRE'S DEVOTION TO VIRGIN OF LOURDES

An Italian businessman applied the Social Doctrine of the Church and in spite of that he became a billionaire. A contradiction for many who argue that the way to become a millionaire is to lower personnel costs as much as possible. However, Michele Ferrero built a family business with unprecedented economic and social success. Responsible for creating great brands such as Nutella, Mon Chéri, Tic Tac, Kinder Eggs and Ferrero Rocher, among other iconic brands of confectionery, Michele Ferrero was the father of Italian chocolate and a profoundly Catholic rich man.

The richest man in Italy died on St. Valentine's Day 2015. He was in the 22nd place on the list of Forbes billionaires and his fortune was estimated at $26.5 billion dollars.

The Guardian published this when he died: "Ferrero's policies are linked to the fervent Catholicism of its owner. He had a special devotion to the Virgin of Lourdes...executives of his company say that he visited his sanctuary at least once a year and that every Ferrero plant in the world has a statue of the Virgin."

From UCatholic: Every year, he would visit the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, and would organize pilgrimages for his employees to visit as well. In fact, not only is the popular Ferrero Rocher praline named after the shrine, but even its design was inspired by it as well.

The craggy grotto at the shrine to Our Lady of Lourdes is called the Rocher de Massabielle, whose appearance inspired the design and name of the popular praline treat. It isn't hard to imagine the candy, a rough nutty surface with a hollow interior, resembling that of the sacred grotto of Lourdes.

From Forbes: As the company grew, Michele left nothing to chance. In one case, he filed a patent for Mon Chéri in Arabic to thwart knockoffs, and from his home in Monaco he often popped into retail stores to sample competitors' products. Where diligence wasn't enough, he turned to faith, installing statues of the Madonna of Lourdes to watch over Ferrero factories around the globe.

By the time he handed the reigns to his sons in 1997, the once tiny operation had become a heavyweight with roughly $4.8 billion in annual sales.
