Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

WHAT ARE THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT?

The Prophet Isaiah speaks of the Messiah, and lists the gifts of the Spirit in Isaiah 11:2-3. Thus, the gifts of the Spirit are the “permanent dispositions” of:

Wisdom: The gift to seek God first in all things and to see life from His perspective. Understanding: The gift of enlightenment to grasp God’s truth. Counsel: The gift of guidance to make good decisions and do what pleases God. Knowledge: The gift to know God and know myself. Piety: The gift to enjoy God and the service of God. Fear of the Lord: The gift of reverence, awe, and respect towards God. Fortitude: The gift of courage and strength to overcome all obstacles in following Jesus, including interior fear and exterior intimidation.

WHAT IS THE FRUIT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT?

Just as a tree draws in nourishment to produce fruit, so the gifts of the Spirit produce in us the fruits of: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Generosity, Gentleness, Faithfulness, Modesty, Self-control, Chastity (See Galatians 5:22-23)

As our agencies continue to experience unprecedented demand due to the pandemic, there has never been a more important time to support their work through ShareLife. Now thanks to the generosity of a parishioner in the Archdiocese of Toronto, the impact of your donation will be greater than ever.

From today through November 8, all contributions to the ShareLife Parish Campaign will be matched up to a total of $500,000.

How do you take part? Simply give online or donate using the ShareLife envelopes at your parish.

ShareLife-funded agencies have been supporting thousands in need during this pandemic. If you’ve been waiting for an opportunity to help those who are poor and marginalized in your community, now is the time to give. Thank you for your generosity!

BLESSED CARLO ACUTIS' DOCTORS RECALL HIS LAST DAYS IN HOSPITAL

Fifteen-year-old Carlo Acutis died within a week of being diagnosed with acute promyelocytic leukemia, offering his suffering for the pope and for the Church. Following his beatification recently, his doctors and hospital chaplain recalled their memories of his final days.

Fr. Sandro Villa was the hospital chaplain of St. Gerald Hospital outside of Milan who gave Acutis the Anointing of the Sick and Holy Communion on Oct. 10, 2006, the day before Acutis went into a coma due to a brain hemorrhage caused by the M3 subtype of acute myeloid leukemia.

Villa shared at an event in Assisi Oct. 13 that he was touched by Acutis' "composure and devotion" in receiving the sacraments in the hospital room.

"In a small room, at the end of the corridor, I found myself in front of a boy. His pale but serene face surprised me -- unthinkable in a seriously ill person, especially an adolescent," he said.

"I was also amazed by the composure and devotion with which, albeit with difficulty, he received the two sacraments. He seemed to have been waiting for them and felt the need for them."

Before his cancer diagnosis, Carlo Acutis had a great devotion to the Eucharist. From a young age, he expressed a special love for God, even though his Catholic parents had stopped attending Mass.

As he grew older, he started going to daily Mass, often dragging his family members along with him. He made Holy Hours before or after Mass and went to confession weekly.

With his aptitude for computer programming, Acutis built websites to inform others about Eucharistic miracles and Marian apparitions around the world. On his site, he told people, "the more often we receive the Eucharist, the more we will become like Jesus, so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of heaven."

For Villa, this administration of the sacraments would be his only encounter with Acutis, but he said that the look of serenity on Carlo's face was something that stayed with him.

"After a few years ... I learned that he was declared 'Venerable.' I was amazed that the Lord had allowed me to meet him, if only for a few moments," he said.

Villa continued: "I decided to learn about his life. I discovered that he was in love with the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and I therefore began to better understand some of his words."

Dr. Andrea Biondi and Dr. Mòmcilo Jankovic, who treated Acutis in the pediatric clinic of St. Gerald Hospital, recorded their memories together in a paper that was read aloud at the event.

They said: "Carlo was like a meteor with a quick passage through our ward; leukemia took him away before we could get to know him even a little. However, his sweet eyes remain engrained [in our memories]. His gaze was full of attention ... of courage, of love, of strong empathy."

"His faith in God, which he had wanted and still wanted to pass on to others, to his neighbor, shone through him ... His gentle eyes ... taught us a lot: life, whether short or long must be lived intensely for oneself, but also and above all for others."

Acutis' heart stopped beating on Oct. 12 -- a date which is now celebrated as a local feast in the Diocese of Assisi and Archdiocese of Milan. His parents had desired to donate his organs, but they were too compromised by leukemia to be donated.

Today Blessed Carlo's heart is considered a relic and is contained in a reliquary in Assisi that is inscribed with his words: "The Eucharist is my highway to heaven." From Spirit Daily, Oct 18

THE MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession, was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of Virgins, my mother. To you I come; before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

The devil is afraid of us when we pray and make sacrifices. He is also afraid when we are humble and good. He is especially afraid when we love Jesus very much. He runs away when we make the Sign of the Cross. - St. Anthony of Padua
