May 12 The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

One of the principal feasts of the liturgical year is the solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord, commemorating when Jesus ascended into Heaven. The event is narrated in the Acts of the Apostles: So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samar'ia and to the end of the earth." And when he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. Acts 1:6-9

When is the Ascension celebrated?

The Catholic Church celebrates the Ascension 40 days after Easter Sunday, and that day normally falls on a Thursday. This correlates with St. Luke's account in the Acts of the Apostles, where he states, "To [the apostles, Jesus] presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God" (Acts 1:3). However, to make it easier for the faithful to attend Mass on this important day, individual bishops' conferences are responsible for assigning the date for the celebration of the Ascension and can transfer it to the nearest Sunday. Catholic News Agency

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Jesus and Mother Mary, if Eve was the Mother of Humanity, Mary was the door to the humanity of Jesus and through Him, the door to eternal life for all men of all time. Without the mother, there is no child, "without Mary there is no Jesus" (Mother Teresa of Calcutta). Life is the most prodigious event that God has created. And the woman has been given the great gift of making it possible, and of witnessing the miracle of creating life. The masterpiece of creation is the heart of a mother. For God the mother is so important that even He Himself wanted to have one and came to earth through the most beautiful woman, Mary. Mary received us as her children... She welcomes us, she receives us in her arms and her motherhood is prolonged in each of us. Mother is synonym of love without limits, kindness, tenderness, peace. She shows us the mercy and love of God, because a mother's heart is a deep abyss in which you will always find forgiveness. Let us give thanks to The Lord for the gift of our mothers, because they said "yes" to life, because they loved us even before we were born, for everything that we have received from them and for everything that they have done for us. For all those who have their mothers alive, love them, take care of them, spend time with them and for those whose mothers have departed to the presence of Heavenly Father, pray for the repose of their souls. Happy Mother's Day!

May 14 Feast day of St. Matthias, Apostle

Matthias, whose name means "gift of God", was the disciple chosen to replace Judas as one of the twelve Apostles. The Acts of the Apostles state that he was also one of the 72 disciples that the Lord Jesus sent out to preach the good news. Matthias was with the Lord since His Baptism, and was "a witness to Christ's Resurrection," according to St. Peter in Acts. He remained with Jesus until His Ascension. According to various traditions, Matthias preached in Cappadocia, Jerusalem, the shores of the Caspian Sea (in modern day Turkey) and Ethiopia. He is said to have met his death by crucifixion in Colchis or by stoning in Jerusalem. There is evidence cited in some of the early Church fathers that there was a Gospel according to Matthias in circulation, but it has since been lost, and was declared apocryphal by Pope Gelasius. He is invoked for assistance against alcoholism, and for support by recovered alcoholics.
