May 24-World Day of Prayer for the Church in China

In May 2007, Pope Benedict XVI asked that May 24 be observed as a Day of Prayer of the Church in China. He chose this day since it is the traditional Feast of Our Lady of Help of Christians, venerated at the Shrine of Sheshan in Shanghai. Ordo

May 26, Solemnity- THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Our Faith sometimes seems so intimidating yet so fulfilling. One that seems more intimidating to explain is the Most Holy Trinity. How best to explain The Holy Trinity? I will try with the example of the roles in our lives. What do I mean by that? Well, let us take the example of Men and Women. As a wife or a husband, one of our roles is to develop and nurture our love for one another. As we mature and begin to have children, our role as a Mother or a Father, is to develop and nurture our children. As our children become adults, begin their own life, and have their own children our role now becomes the many roles of Grandparents. Yet we are the same person. The same applies to Triune God: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. God the Father, like any father in traditional families, has the role of the authority figure who gives us the guidelines in the form of commandments to abide in his love. In order to manifest his love, he became Jesus God the Son who shows us the love of the Father through miracles, parables and simple teachings. He came and lived among us; showed us the right way through his life. He chose the disciples to teach us the life, the truth and the way. Finally, he died for us so we too may have the eternal life. However, before he left to heaven, he gave to us God the Holy Spirit, to be with us, to inspire us, to guide us with the heavenly virtues and values of the kingdom of God the Father. It is like a Grandparent who guides the grandkids with the wisdom, experience and maturity by giving the moral values. As one-person plays different roles on earth, God plays as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in heaven for our salvation. Father Dunstan

May 31, Feast -THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

During those days Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled." ~Luke 1:39-45

How lyrical that is, the opening sentence of St. Luke's description of the Visitation. We can feel the rush of warmth and kindness, the sudden urgency of love that sent that girl hurrying over the hills. "Those days" in which she rose on that impulse were the days in which Christ was being formed in her, the impulse was his impulse. Many women, if they were expecting a child, would refuse to hurry over the hills on a visit of pure kindness. They would say they had a duty to themselves and to their unborn child which came before anything or anyone else. The Mother of God considered no such thing. Elizabeth was going to have a child, too, and although Mary's own child was God, she could not forget Elizabeth's need—almost incredible to us, but characteristic of her. She greeted her cousin Elizabeth, and at the sound of her voice, John quickened in his mother's womb and leapt for joy. I am come, said Christ, that they may have life and may have it more abundantly. [Jn. 10, 10] Even before He was born His presence gave life. With what piercing shoots of joy does this story of Christ unfold! First the conception of a child in a child's heart, and then this first salutation, an infant leaping for joy in his mother's womb, knowing the hidden Christ and leaping into life. How did Elizabeth herself know what had happened to Our Lady? What made her realize that this little cousin who was so familiar to her was the mother of her God? She knew it by the child within herself, by the quickening into life which was a leap of joy. If we practice this contemplation taught and shown to us by Our Lady, we will find that our experience is like hers. If Christ is growing in us, if we are at peace, recollected, because we know that however insignificant our life seems to be, from it He is forming Himself; if we go with eager wills, "in haste," to wherever our circumstances compel us, because we believe that He desires to be in that place, we shall find that we are driven more and more to act on the impulse of His love. And the answer we shall get from others to those impulses will be an awakening into life, or the leap into joy of the already wakened life within them.
