Solemnity November 1, 2024 All Saints Day

The Prayer to All Saints is a powerful prayer that calls upon all the saints to intercede on our behalf.

It is a reminder that we are not alone in our journey of faith, but that we have a great cloud of witnesses who are cheering us on.

O glorious Saints of Heaven, who lived and died in the love of God and in the service of your fellow men, we come to you today asking for your intercession.

We ask that you pray for us, that we may be faithful to God's will and that we may follow your example of holiness and virtue. Help us to be true Disciples of Christ, and to spread his love and mercy to all those we meet. Amen.

November Devotion: The Holy Souls in Purgatory

Since the 16th century, Catholic piety has assigned entire months to special devotions. As a reminder of our duty to pray for the suffering faithful in Purgatory, the Church has dedicated the month of November to the Holy Souls, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. The Holy Souls are those who have died in the state of grace but who are not yet free from all punishment due to their unforgiven venial sins and all other sins already forgiven for which satisfaction is still to be made. They are certain of entering Heaven, but first they must suffer in Purgatory. The Holy Souls cannot help themselves because for them the night has come, when no man can work (John 9:4). It is our great privilege of brotherhood that we can shorten their time of separation from God by our prayers, good works, and, especially, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

With the exception of the last two days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical colour, green. This symbol of hope is the colour of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of Heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time. The last portion of the liturgical year represents the time of our pilgrimage to Heaven during which we hope for reward. On the last Sunday, which marks the beginning of Advent, the liturgical colour changes to purple, representing a time of penance. Catholic Culture According to tradition, Our Lord told St. Gertrude the Great that each time she piously recited the following prayer, it would greatly ease the suffering of those holy souls in Purgatory:

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

St. Gertrude the Great was a 13th-century German nun, writer, and mystic who was graced with many heavenly visions, including being one of the earliest mystics to whom Jesus encouraged a devotion to his Sacred Heart. It is recounted that Jesus showed her a vast number of souls entering Heaven from Purgatory as a result of her faithful and frequent recitation of this prayer. We should note, however, that while this prayer has long been a part of our Catholic tradition, it is not officially indulged. This means that the Holy See has declared that we should reject any claims that a specific number of souls are released from Purgatory with the recitation of the prayer. Nonetheless, the Church has always encouraged fervent prayer for those suffering in purgatory because our prayers help to alleviate their suffering. Our response, then, should be to simply pray with fervor, and let God take care of the details! You can easily memorize this popular prayer and recite it any time you wish to remember the faithful departed among your family and friends. Try adding it in after each decade of the Rosary, especially during November! The Catholic Company
