November 9, 2024 Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

What is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica?

This feast day celebrates the anniversary of the Dedication of Rome's Lateran Basilica in 324 A.D. In that year, Pope Sylvester established his cathedral and residence on property given to the Church by the Emperor Constantine. As the Cathedral of the Bishop of Rome and the Pope, it is the-highest ranking church in the world.

Why is the Basilica also called St. John Lateran?

It was dedicated to St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist, so the reference is to the two Johns associated with our Lord. They became associated with the Basilica owing to the monks from the monastery of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Divine who served there.

What are the four major basilicas?

There are four major papal basilicas in Rome. These four are the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran, St. Peter's Basilica, St. Paul Outside the Walls, and the Papal Basilica of St. Mary Major.

What makes a church a Basilica?

There are two uses of the name basilica (from the Greek basileus- king). One is the honour given to a church by designation of the Pope; the other is an architectural style based on the design of the ancient Roman law courts. Historically, the ancient use preceded the Church's use. The basilicas were designed to serve as the place where the emperor's representative sat and judged. They were rectangular in shape with a central nave, at the end of which was a rounded area, the apse, in which the judge sat. Typically, there were two side aisles separated from the nave, by columns. Many basilicas were given over to church use by Constantine, as they were suitable for the public celebration of Mass. Many of these original basilicas survive, and new churches are still made in this style. The Pope, however, is the only one who can name a basilica in the honorific sense. The title is given to churches of significance to the Universal Church, to a country, or even a diocese. There are more than 1,800 basilicas in the world, with 85 in the United States. In Rome there are four major basilicas -- the only ones in the Church -- and numerous minor basilicas. The four major basilica are also called papal basilicas, and historically were called patriarchal basilicas.

Prayer:

*O God,
who from living and chosen stones
prepare an eternal dwelling for your majesty, increase in your Church the spirit of grace you have bestowed,
so that by new growth your faithful people
may build up the heavenly Jerusalem.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. Amen.
(The Roman Missal)*

Month of November

The Catholic Church encourages all the faithful to pray for the souls in Purgatory. You are invited to pick up an All-Souls Envelope to offer a Mass either to deceased members of your family or someone you love. We will send these Masses to priests in the mission countries. It will have a double effect: an offering for the Souls in Purgatory and helping priests in mission countries.
