A Prayer for Christmas Forgiveness

Dear Lord, as we celebrate the birth of Jesus, I come to You seeking forgiveness and healing in my relationships. This Christmas, help me to let go of past grievances and open my heart to reconciliation. Teach me to forgive others as You have forgiven me, allowing Your love to flow freely through my life. I pray for those I may have hurt, that they may find peace in their hearts. Let this season be a time of healing and renewal, fostering understanding and compassion among us. Thank you for the gift of forgiveness, which brings freedom and restoration. May we celebrate this Christmas with hearts full of love and grace. Amen.

Matthew 6:14

“For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.”

*"Wishing all our Parishioners and their Families a very Merry Christmas filled with the wonder of Mary, the obedience of Joseph, and the joy of the angels."
May the Lord's blessing shine upon you this Christmas, as bright as the star that shone on that holy night."*

December 25: The Nativity of the Lord (Solemnity)

The Nativity of the Lord, or Christmas, celebrates Jesus Christ's birth in Bethlehem, fulfilling God's promise of salvation. Born to the Virgin Mary in a humble stable, His birth was announced by angels to shepherds, who adored Him. The event emphasizes God's love, humility, and the Incarnation's mystery.

December 26: St. Stephen, The first Martyr (Feast)

Saint Stephen was one of the first ordained deacons of the Church. He was also the first Christian martyr. As Stephen was being brutally stoned, he spoke his last words, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. Lord, do not hold this sin against them.", words which echoed the very words of Jesus on the Cross. Following those words, Stephen died, in the Lord.

December 27: St. John, Apostle and Evangelist (Feast)

St. John, the son of Zebedee and brother of St. James the Great, was called to be an Apostle by our Lord in the first year of His public ministry. He became the "beloved disciple" and the only one of the Twelve who did not forsake the Saviour in the hour of His Passion. He stood faithfully at the Cross when Christ made him the guardian of His Mother.

December 28: The Holy Innocents, Martyrs (Feast)

The Holy Innocents did not know Jesus, but they died in His place. December 28 marks the feast of these baby boys who are, today, recognized as the first martyrs and pro-life patron saints.

December 29: Holy Family (Feast)

The Holy Family of Nazareth is the family into which Jesus Christ was born, His mother is the Virgin Mary, His adoptive father, Saint Joseph. This family is found in the Bible, in the New Testament. This unique family forms a small trinity; it is the image on earth of the Holy Trinity in Heaven.
