Preparing for Lent

Don't blink. Lent will be here before you know it. Isn't that how it always is? The Christmas season is behind us and it feels like Ordinary Time has only just begun - but suddenly it's Ash Wednesday, and we're scrambling to decide what we're doing for Lent and wondering whether our choice of penance is too hard or too easy.

This year, don't let Lent take you by surprise - have your plan in place. Here's how: Before Ash Wednesday catches you unawares, make a point of sitting down - at the kitchen table, or at the chapel - and give some thought to how you want to spend this Lent.

If you have no idea where to begin, rest assured: there is a solid foundation to work from. The Church doesn't leave us to figure things out ourselves. There are three holy practices which Catholics are called to embrace in penitential seasons such as Lent and Advent. These three practices are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

When you make your Lenten plan, choose something specific from each category - and you're set for a grace-filled journey to Easter. Good Catholic

RCIA Rite of Election

As Lent approaches, the Northern Pastoral Region of the Archdiocese of Toronto is preparing for the RCIA Rite of Election that will take place on Sunday, March 9, 2025 at 3:00pm at St. Clare of Assisi Church in Woodbridge. It is not a Mass but a Liturgy of the Word. In this second step of the process, the focus is on the catechumens; that is, those presently unbaptized who, with the involvement of the RCIA Team, have been designated to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist during this year's Easter Vigil. After this celebration, they are called "the Elect". We are blessed with 9 candidates in our Parish this year.

March in the Catholic Church

In popular piety, March is a special month dedicated to St. Joseph, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and foster father of Jesus Christ. Throughout the calendar year, each month is dedicated to a particular spiritual theme. These dedications are not official but have become part of popular piety over the centuries.

March is a month that eventually became known as the "Month of St. Joseph". Why is that?

While March always falls within the season of Lent, it also contains the primary feast in the Roman Rite that is dedicated to St. Joseph.

In the Western Church, the Feast of St. Joseph was not fixed until the 15th century. According to some traditions, March 19 was the day of Joseph's death, though there is little evidence to support it, as it is unclear when he died.

By 1621, Pope Gregory XV extended the Feast of St. Joseph to the entire Church, and it was elevated even more when Pope Pius IX declared St. Joseph the "Patron of the Universal Church" in 1870. For many decades, March 19 was a holy day of obligation on par with other major feasts in the Catholic Church.

Since March 19 falls during Lent, and is a solemnity, it offers a rare respite from the rigors of Lent.

The Feast of St. Joseph has acquired a variety of local traditions over the years, such as the St. Joseph's Table, as well as a novena that precedes this special Feast.

While March has many other feasts and special celebrations, the Feast of St. Joseph stands out as one of the primary highlights of this month. Aleteia
