November: A Month of Prayer for Our Departed Loved Ones

November invites us to remember our departed loved ones in a special way. Let us pray for them and entrust their souls to God's mercy and love. We encourage everyone to offer Masses throughout November for family members, friends, all the souls in purgatory, and especially those who have no one to remember them in prayer. Please take a Mass offering envelope, write the names of your departed loved ones, and include your offering. May our prayers help them on their journey toward the fullness of eternal life with God.

All Saints' Day, November 1

A Celebration of Heaven's Holy Ones

November 1 marks All Saints' Day, a feast day honouring those who have attained eternal life and dwell in perfect communion with God. This celebration honours all saints: not only the canonized saints recognized by the Church but also the countless souls who, though unknown to the world, have achieved holiness and now enjoy the beatific vision- the eternal joy of gazing upon God in His heavenly glory. As Revelation describes, "They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads" (Revelation 22:4). While Mary, as Queen of Angels and Saints, holds a special place among the saints, this day reminds us that every Christian is called to holiness and eternal communion with God.

All Souls' Day, November 2

All Souls' Day is a sacred occasion set aside to remember and pray for the faithful departed. This day calls us to reflect on the mystery of death and the hope of eternal life, reminding us that our loved ones continue to live in the embrace of God. It is a time to honour our relatives and all souls in purgatory, offering prayers, masses, and deeds of charity. These acts of intercession help cleanse the soul of the departed and strengthen our own journey of faith.

- Reflection: Meditate on the brevity of life and the promise of heaven.
- Prayer: Offer heartfelt prayers for those who have departed exploring God's mercy.
- Charity: Perform acts of kindness in memory of the dearly departed.
